Based at William Perkin Church of England High School, Greenford, Middlesex UB6 8PR is seeking to appoint an

Wider SLT: Head of Assessment & Curriculum Organisation + Line Management of Science
– to start 28th August 2019

Salary: L6 – L10 (£52,771 - £57,494)

Closing date: 12 noon on Tuesday 23rd April 2019

Interview date: to be confirmed

We are looking to appoint an energetic and committed professional, with successful middle leadership experience, to the role of Wider SLT: Head of Curriculum Assessment and Organisation + Line Management of Science at Ada Lovelace Church of England High School - a new 6FE local comprehensive school for pupils aged 11-18. Ada Lovelace is the fourth school to be developed by the Twyford Trust which has a very strong reputation locally for exceptional standards and creative curriculum development. The school is named after the Victorian pioneer of computing – it has a specialism in digital technologies, and will provide curriculum pathways from Year 7 in ICT and Computer Science as well as creative applications of digital media.

Ada Lovelace opened in September 2018 and for its first two years is co-located at William Perkin CE High School in Greenford. The current PAN (125 students) increases to 196 students per year group when the school moves to its permanent site on Parkview Road, Ealing in a brand-new building. The first year of the school has been very successful and the students have benefitted from the outstanding standards at William Perkin, which was ranked 8th in the country on its first GCSE results in the summer of 2018. Ada Lovelace students are currently fully integrated into William Perkin teaching groups, however in 2019-20 will have a separate teaching block which will start the process of separation, ahead of the move to the new site from September 2020.

The role has been designed as an SLT training role for a Science specialist who seeks to develop their expertise in whole school assessment & curriculum organisation. In 2019-20, while Ada Lovelace remains at William Perkin school, there will be opportunity to train under the supervision of the Deputy Head & Trust Assessment Lead in order to understand the systems for setting in core and elective subjects and to share responsibility for school organisation in these areas.

The successful candidate will be trained in the use of the Trust assessment system, including the Go4Schools software, and will have responsibility for the training and support of Head of Department / Post holders in both schools. The new post-holder will work with the Deputy Head Pastoral and Assistant Head to set up the school VLE (cloned from the Trust system known as 'Copia') for Ada Lovelace in readiness for a full launch in September 2020.

Ada Lovelace SLT post-holders will work as part of the WP team during 2019-20 and undertake general whole school responsibilities on this basis. The role provides the opportunity to grow as a key member of the SLT – s/he will develop as an Assistant Headteacher within a visionary and enterprising context, and with the support of an experienced Executive team.

You are warmly invited to visit us - if you would like to do this please contact the Associate Headteacher, Mr Keir Smith, at kmsith@williamperkin.org.uk or the Twyford Trust recruitment team at recruitment@twyfordacademies.org.uk

The successful candidate will have:

- A good degree and QTS
- Proven record of outstanding results
- Outstanding skills as a classroom teacher
- An excellent record of as a Middle Leader (curriculum or pastoral)
- An excellent record of developmental work in current role
- Experience of curriculum and assessment (design and development)
- Experience of managing or implementing pastoral systems and initiatives
- Experience of managing others / managing change
- Ability to be reflective and driven towards self-improvement
- Energy and enthusiasm
- A commitment to the ethos of the school

We offer:

- The chance to join a creative & dynamic team of experienced curriculum and pastoral leaders committed to maintaining an outstanding school community
- Exceptional professional development and career progression
- Positive working relationships at all levels

The Twyford Trust

The Twyford Trust was established in October 2011 to enable an existing School, Twyford CE High School, to build on its successes and look outward to the large number of parents who were eager to become part of its community. The Twyford Trust aims to deliver outstanding education in a comprehensive school setting, and embraces the Twyford School motto 'Life in all its fullness', encouraging students to use their individual gifts wisely and well. Supported by the London Diocesan Board for Schools (LDBS), the Trust is the overarching organisation which provides support for all Trust schools – the Trust comprises four schools in the London Borough of Ealing.

Ada Lovelace CE High School, Ealing

Ada Lovelace Church of England High School is a new 6-form-entry local comprehensive school for students aged 11-18. The school opened in September 2018 with an intake of 125 Year 7 students, and will continue with an intake of 125 students in September 2019 whilst co-located at William Perkin Church of England High School in Greenford. Student numbers increase to 196 per year group when the school moves to its new permanent site in North Ealing, and the school will have 1,330 students when full. Ada Lovelace is named after the Victorian pioneer of computing – it has a specialism in digital technologies and will provide different routes from Year 7 in ICT and Computer Science as well as applications of Creative Media. The school will benefit from strong partnerships with both Twyford and William Perkin CE High Schools, both of which currently run strong programmes in this area.
