We are looking to appoint a Girls' PE Teacher for Ada Lovelace CE High School. As a new school within a highly aspirational and academically successful multi-academy Trust, the school offers comprehensive CPD, exciting development opportunities and good promotion prospects for its teachers. The school, now in its second year, is currently co-located at William Perkin CE High School (Ofsted 'Outstanding'), and moves to its brand new permanent site in north Ealing in September 2020.

This is an exciting role for an enthusiastic teacher as we prepare our students for GCSE and beyond (the school's first GCSEs will be in 2023). The opportunity to be involved in establishing the sporting offer in a new school is not one to be missed - the post-holder will be joining an innovative and energetic PE team that seeks to deliver an outstanding curriculum, and will be well supported by the Head of Department and an experienced Senior Leadership Team.

This role is suitable for NQT and RQT applicants.

- A supportive Leadership Team
- A full-range of Trust services providing support and development

The successful candidate will have:

- A good degree and Qualified Teacher Status
- Ability to teach PE to at least KS4
- Knowledge of the requirements of the National Curriculum
- An understanding of recent curriculum / learning developments
- An understanding of the strategies required to motivate and enthuse all students across the ability range as part of a whole school approach to raising achievement
- An understanding of the processes and techniques required to assess, record and report students' learning effectively
- Ability to be reflective and driven towards self-improvement
- Energy and enthusiasm

- A commitment to the ethos of the school

The Twyford Trust

The Twyford Trust was established in October 2011 to enable an existing School, Twyford CE High School, to build on its successes and look outward to the large number of parents who were eager to become part of its community. The Twyford Trust aims to deliver outstanding education in a comprehensive school setting, and embraces the Twyford School motto 'Life in all its fullness', encouraging students to use their individual gifts wisely and well. Supported by the London Diocesan Board for Schools (LDBS), the Trust is the overarching organisation which provides support for all Trust schools – the Trust comprises four schools in the London Borough of Ealing. The Trust has a highly evolved common curriculum which has had a powerful impact on the outstanding outcomes achieved in Computing across both William Perkin and Twyford. The new appointee will have the opportunity to work collaboratively to develop this further.

Ada Lovelace CE High School

Ada Lovelace Church of England High School opened in September 2018 and has a smaller intake (125 students per year) for two years while co-located at William Perkin Church of England High School - an Ofsted Outstanding school - in Greenford. It now has two Year Groups with a total of 257 students. The school moves to its brand new permanent site in north Ealing in September 2020, at which time student numbers increase to 196 per year group. The school will have 1,330 students when full. Ada Lovelace is named after the Victorian pioneer of computing – it has a specialism in digital technologies and will provide different routes from Year 7 in ICT and Computer Science as well as applications of Creative Media. Ada Lovelace also benefits from specialist provisions and support from within the family of Trust schools. This includes a common curriculum which has been devised by staff within the four schools. The Trust is also the hub of a teaching school alliance and prides itself on the standards of peer-led CPD within a dynamic culture of self-improvement.
